"Working Closely with my husband Ed, son Tim & Debbie Tighe who are all licensed real estate agents with Coldwell Banker West Shell, enables me to serve clients and customers diligently, attentively and with attention to every detail."

"I enjoy acquainting out-of-towners with our beautiful city. My approach is to show them all areas of the city first, so that when they finally select a home they will be totally confident with their choice."

"A lot of private information often has to be shared with a real estate agent and I am very careful never to betray a trust."

"I take great pride in working with my team. They allow me to stay on top of my game and provide the utmost of care to my clients. We are fastidiously careful, follow-through to the end and utilize the best technological resources at our disposal."
